BRIEF OUTLINE OF THE PROJECT

Ayllu kuyaqkuna is a charitable association whose purpose is to take the Gospel of Christ to the Quechuas in Peru and help those displaced during the era of terrorism. It achieves this aim by promoting small animal husbandry and the use of the Bible in native languages, the use of literature in their own language, training their leaders and serving their churches and communities. Ayllu kuyaqkuna was founded in 2003 and was registered with the Public Registry.

LONG TERM AIM

So this family would have a place to live, with out the bad odor from the pigs.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

To help build ahouse with two bedrooms of 7x6

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Thanks God we helped a family before with the constructions of a wooden house and was a blessing for them.

REASONING

This family arrived to Lima because they had to escape from the terrorist in the mountains and now they have to live in a poor village with out a house, they have to work with pigs and live with this animals and the smell is very disgusting all the day, with this family live a couple of old persons left for their children.

STRATEGY

Built two bedrooms with breaks.
